Bacterial conversations: talking, listening and eavesdropping

Papers of a Theme Issue compiled and edited by Ian Joint, J. Allan Downie and Paul Williams

Bacterial conversations: talking, listening and eavesdropping. An introduction 1115
I. Joint, J. Allan Downie & P. Williams

Look who’s talking: communication and quorum sensing in the bacterial world 1119
P. Williams, K. Winzer, W. C. Chan & M. Câmara

Cell-cell communication in the plant pathogen Agrobacterium tumefaciens 1135
C. E. White & S. C. Winans

Quorum-sensing regulation in rhizobia and its role in symbiotic interactions with legumes 1149
M. Sanchez-Contreras, W. D. Bauer, M. Gao, J. B. Robinson & J. A. Downie

Cell–cell communication in the plant pathogen Agrobacterium tumefaciens 1135
C. E. White & S. C. Winans

Quorum-sensing regulation in rhizobia and its role in symbiotic interactions with legumes 1149
M. Sanchez-Contreras, W. D. Bauer, M. Gao, J. B. Robinson & J. A. Downie

The peptide pheromone-inducible conjugation system of Enterococcus faecalis plasmid pCF10: cell–cell signalling, gene transfer, complexity and evolution 1185
G. M. Dunny

Antibiotics as signalling molecules 1195
G. Yim, H. H. Wang & J. Davies FRS

Quorum-quenching microbial infections: mechanisms and implications 1201

Cross-kingdom signalling: exploitation of bacterial quorum sensing molecules by the green seaweed Ulva 1223
I. Joint, K. Tait & G. Wheeler

Acylated homoserine lactones in the environment: chameleons of bioactivity 1235
M. Manefield & A. S. Whiteley

Evolutionary theory of bacterial quorum sensing: when is a signal not a signal? 1241
S. P. Diggle, A. Cardner, S. A. West & A. S. Griffin
